Colonel Savage has returned from a visit Colonel Savage has returned from a visit to his farm at Sargent, Custer county. The colonel reports that the farmers are holding large quantities of corn and that the market price is not as good as last fall. As many as are able are feeding it to stock. The new freight rates on stock, which went into effect the latter part of April is creating a great deal of unfavorable comment among shippers. The former charge was a fixed tariff, the same on all cars. The new method is as follows: Cars less than 29 feet are 24 per cent of tariff; cars from 29 to 30½ feet, at tariff; 30 to 32 feet is 104 per cent, or 4 per cent above tariff; 32 to 33 feet, is 107, or 7 per cent above tariff; 33 to 31 feet, is 110, or 10 per cent above tariff. In the long run this makes very little difference, but it does make a good deal of difference in individual cases. For example, a shipper has ten cars of stock to ship and orders that many cars, it may happen that the cars would all be small and in that case he would be the gainer.
